HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. HAS INTERESTING MEET

That school lunches can be attractive and delicious as well as balanced and nutritious was demonstrated to the Torrance high P.T.A. by the home economics department at Monday's meeting in the school library. Mrs. Madeleine Urquhart, head of the department, introduced Miss Jenkins, who gave practical suggestions for preparing sandwiches and for including fruits and vegetables in the noon meal. Eighth grade students Patricia Northway, Mary Stucke, Gloriette Corwin and Betty Johnston each assembled a lunch which she would enjoy, giving the food values of each item.

Book Week was publicized through an excellent display of books for young people arranged by Miss Florence Behr, school librarian. Mrs. Glen W. Bell announced the appointment of the following room representatives: Mesdames M. R. Gallimore, H. B. Ringle, C. M. Crook, Louis Lissoni, W. R. Page, Frank Paur, Paul Ream and Earl Robinette.

The question box gave rise to an interesting discussion of home work, copying and handling of lost gym clothes. Parents' questions will be a regular part of each meeting. Ninth grade mothers were honor guests. They were welcomed by the president, Mrs. L. F. Watson. Mrs. Grace Morse, advisor for ninth graders, explained the school's method of counselling students in selection of course and in citizenship.

ROBERTA ANN IS FIVE NOW

The fifth birthday of Roberta Ann Lincoln was celebrated Saturday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Barck. Games, with prizes for each guest, were enjoyed by the honoree and Carolyn and Emory Lou Rose, Joan Oliver, Carol Hamilton and Joan Barck. The little girl was again honored when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Page Lincoln entertained at dinner Sunday at Knotts Berry Farm. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Barck, Miss Virginia Barck and Mrs. Carrie Lincoln.

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this evening's Catholic card party are Mrs. T. T. Babbitt and her committee, Mesdames Murray, Anderson, Melville, Sullivan, Savoie, Jesome, Winkler, Davies and Beale. Everyone is cordially invited. The first door prize will be presented at 8 o'clock and card play will begin immediately. Tables of contract and auction bridge, pinochle and 500 will be in play.

Servicemen's stationery? Call Torrance 444 or 443.

Virginia Scott Is Honoree at Farewell Party

Complimenting Mrs. Virginia B. Scott, who left this week to make her home in Fresno, Mrs. James H. Burchett entertained at a supper party Monday evening at her home on El Prado. At the table, centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums with matching lighted tapers in candleholders, covers were placed for 12. Following the presentation of a handsome group gift to Mrs. Scott, a well planned evening of games ensued, highlighted by a pantomime skit in which the guests participated.

The hostess, who directed the games, was assisted by Mrs. D. A. Murphy. Others present were the honoree and Mesdames E. L. Patterson of Long Beach and formerly of Torrance, B. C. Buxton, Margaret Grow, R. F. Sanderhoff, R. E. Satchell, R. A. Curtiss, D. W. Quigley, C. B. Eipper, (Peggy Shawger), and Paul F. Vonderahe.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, will sponsor a card party to be held at Moose Hall, 1951 Carson st., Tuesday evening, Nov. 28. Games of bridge, 500, pinochle, buno and bingo will be played and refreshments will be served. A business session will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, according to Eva Mae MacArthur, publicity chairman.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT HARDER HOME

Mrs. Fred Harder of Redondo Beach and formerly of this city was hostess to bridge club members who met Tuesday evening of last week. Colorful garden flowers were used at tables arranged for eight guests. Prize winners at contract were Mesdames Edward Rhone and R. F. Lessing.

ST. CECILIA'S PLANS MONTHLY SOCIAL EVENT

St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church will hold its regular social evening at Guild Hall Friday evening. Following a dessert service bridge will be played and many of the ladies will spend the evening sewing for the forthcoming bazaar. Hostesses are Mesdames John W. Siegfried, R. J. Davis and M. Johnson.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

The home of Mrs. H. Archer Lewis at 1820 Martin ave. was a setting for an enjoyable bridge luncheon when Mrs. Maude Kendrick of Los Angeles and formerly of Torrance entertained Thursday afternoon. ### Howard C. Bender Exchanges Vows At Church Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Largent of 345 E. 115th st., Los Angeles, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Geneva Mae, to Mr. Howard C. Bender, United States Navy. The rites were read Sunday afternoon at the Church Around the Corner, Los Angeles. A yeoman, 1/c, he was graduated from Torrance high school with the class of winter '39.

Mrs. Bender will accompany her husband to San Francisco. Upon his departure for South Pacific duty she will return to her parents' home for the duration.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Is Lauded by Guest Officers

Mrs. Clara Conner, president of V.F.W. Auxiliary, was signally honored by Margaret C. Miller of Bakersfield, state president, and Hazle Garrety of Huntington Park, 4th District president, who were guests of the chapter last Thursday evening at Civic Auditorium. In her seven months' office Mrs. Conner has inducted more than 100 candidates, a mark not equaled by another chapter in the state, according to the guest officers. Handsome corsages and gifts were presented to Mesdames Miller and Garrety, and Mrs. Conner wore an orchid corsage, presented by her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mansfield of Malvern, Iowa.

Included in the class of 18 candidates inducted during the evening were "Grandmother" Barbara Hiatt, 76, and Mary Walden, 73, who each received a corsage bouquet from the lodge. A joint meeting with Post 3251 followed and a beautifully decorated cake, inscribed "Margaret and Hazle" and other refreshments were served.

Mrs. Conner wishes to thank her corps of officers and the committee in charge of the evening's arrangements.
